

Arts for the Holidays 2022 Prospectus

Show date: December 10, 2022
10am - 5pm

Fargo Civic Center
207 North 4th Street, Fargo, ND 58102

Arts For the Holidays is open to all artists.

Arts for the Holidays is a juried event bringing together leading and well-established fine artists from the Red River Valley with young and emerging artists. This one-day art event will attract visitors and fine artists to historic downtown during the holiday season. Artists are required to be present for the entire event.

Image Usage Rights

If selected to exhibit at the Arts for the Holidays, the artist authorizes the use of the images submitted and work displayed at the show for show publicity or documentation.

Artist Amenities

Artists will receive overnight security, artist and assistant name tags, Friday check-in & set-up (Saturday check-in available but must be set up by 9am), clean indoor bathrooms, free parking and RV/trailer parking, booth sitting, and an artist lounge with water and snacks.

Promotional Materials

Art For the Holidays will use the combined resources of the Fargo Arts and Culture Commission, Red River Watercolor Society, Fargo Moorhead Visual Artists, and The Arts Partnership to market the event to their constituents along with posters, postcards, and display ads in local print media. Accepted participants can request promotional materials for distribution.

Juror Information

The juror of the Arts for the Holidays show is selected for their experience and expertise. The juror views images in a random order according to category. The juror views the applicant's images on their own computer after the application period closes. Scoring is 1 (low) to 7 (high), based on originality, creativity, design, technique, craftsmanship, production methodology, and booth presentation. The decision of the judge is final. Notification of initial juried acceptance will be by email no later than September 30.
